The Conference of European Churches (hereafter referred to as the ‘Conference’) is an ecumenical fellowship of Churches in Europe which confess the Lord Jesus Christ as God and Saviour according to the Scriptures and therefore seek to fulfil their common calling to the glory of the one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The Member Churches of the Conference (hereafter referred to as the ‘Members’) seek, by the grace of the Triune God, to pursue together the path of growing conciliar understanding on which they have set out. In faithfulness to the Gospel, as witnessed in Holy Scripture and transmitted in and through the Member Churches of the Conference by the power of the Holy Spirit, they seek to continue to grow in a fellowship of faith, hope and love. Faithful to this Gospel, they also seek to make a common contribution to the mission of the Church, to the safeguarding of life and the well-being of all humankind. As a fellowship of Churches, they are called to trust and respect one another. They depend on each other to achieve their common objectives. They honour and value the contribution of all, recognising that their diversity is a gift that enriches. Unless otherwise provided in this Constitution, a Member may not grant a proxy to another Member. In case the General Assembly has to adopt amendments to this Constitution in the presence of a notary public, because the amendments require to be recorded in a notarial deed according to Belgian law, each Member shall have the right, by way of derogation from the previous sentence, to grant proxy to a Delegate representing another Member. The Delegate(s) being granted such proxies shall cast all votes apportioned to the Member he or she represents according to Article 7a (3) as well as all votes granted by other Members according to their respective index number. In such a proceeding, only such amendments may be adopted that have been approved by a previous physical meeting of the General Assembly outside of Belgium in accordance with the requirements laid down in Article 17 (1)-(6) of this Constitution. For this purpose, each Delegate being present may hold an unlimited number of proxies. The proxy shall be granted directly to the Delegate, via regular mail or via any other means of written communication (including e-mail), provided the

During a physical meeting of the General Assembly, the presence quorum shall regularly be verified in accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the General Assembly by its Moderator. If half of the Members are not present at the first meeting, a second meeting of the General Assembly may be convened pursuant to Article 7 a (1) of this Constitution, at least three months after the first meeting of the General Assembly. The second meeting of the General Assembly shall validly deliberate, irrespective of the number of Members present, in accordance with the majorities stipulated in Article 7 a (6). Further details shall be put down in the Rules of Procedure of the General Assembly.
(5) Decisions of the General Assembly shall be passed by a simple majority of the delegates present or represented, except in cases when a qualified majority is required by this constitution. On specific theological or socio-ethical questions or issues a consensus model of decision-making shall be used.	(6) Unless otherwise provided for in this Constitution, decisions are taken by vote. A decision of the General Assembly shall be adopted if it obtains the simple majority of the votes cast. Blank votes, invalid votes and abstentions shall not be counted. In the event of a tie, the motion shall be taken as rejected. No vote shall be cast regarding an item that is not listed on the agenda. At the beginning of the meeting of the General Assembly, Delegates can request to (i) add new items on the agenda and/or (ii) delete items from the agenda, pursuant to the presence quorum and the voting quorum provided for at Article 7a (5) & (6) of the Constitution.
	(7) By way of derogation from Article 7 a (6) of this Constitution, on specific theological or socio-ethical questions or issues, a consensus mode of decision-making shall be used. Further details shall be laid down in the ‘Rules of Procedure’ of the General Assembly.

If no Member raises any objections to the minutes within two (2) months after the distribution, the Governing Board shall take the decision to add the minutes to the official register of minutes. If there are objections, the next General Assembly shall decide on the final wording before it takes the decision to add the minutes to the official register of minutes.

A copy of all documents to be discussed and approved must be enclosed with the invitations. These documents include a report by the Governing Board setting out and explaining the proposal to be voted upon. The Members then have 15 days to put forward any questions they might have regarding the proposal to be approved. Upon receipt of the final version of the proposal and the documents to be approved, each voting delegate of a Member who does not explicitly notify the Governing Board by email of his/her vote against the proposal, by the day before the General Assembly at the latest, shall be considered to have voted in favour of the proposal.

A simple majority of votes of the present or represented delegates of Members is required except in those cases where a qualified majority is a requirement according to this constitution.

(4) By way of derogation from Article 7 b (3) of this Constitution, Members shall have the right to be represented in a written procedure by the same delegation that has last been notified to the Conference according to Article 7 (a) (3) of this Constitution. If a Member is apportioned more than one Delegate, it is up to the Member to decide before the beginning of each meeting of the General Assembly whether all its Delegates shall cast their vote, concerning each motion tabled, in the same way (either in favour, against, or abstain) or whether the Delegates may cast their vote in a different way. Should the Member intend to replace one or more Delegate(s), it shall, within ten (10) calendar days after the receipt of the invitation, inform the General Secretary via regular mail and/or via any other means of written communication (including e-mail). With this notification, the Member must also provide the identity and contact details, physical and electronical, of each Delegate concerned.

(5) As from the date of the notification made by the Governing Board, each Delegate shall have the right within one (1) month, to send questions to the Governing Board via regular mail or via any other means of written communication (including e-mail) relating to the agenda and the motions to be voted on. The Governing Board shall answer all questions within two (2) weeks as from their receipt.

(6) On the basis of the questions and answers, the Governing Board shall have the right to adjust or correct any material error in the documents provided or motions tabled, or to withdraw one or more of them. At least eight (8) calendar days before the final date to vote, the Governing Board shall send to all Delegates the final version of the motions to be voted on and the documents to be approved, including a summary of all questions received and answers given.

	(7) The communication according to Article 7 b (6) of this Constitution shall include a ballot paper with a numbered list of motions, and with the options to agree, reject or abstain for every motion thus tabled individually. This ballot paper shall be returned, duly completed and signed, to the registered office of the Conference or any other address stated in the invitation, via regular mail or via any other means of written communication (including e-mail). A secret ballot is not possible. If by the end, according to current Brussels time, of the final day to vote less than half of the Members have returned the ballot paper(s), the motions shall be taken as rejected. If no simple majority of the votes cast is reached in favour of the items on the agenda and the use of the written procedure within the period mentioned in the invitation for the written procedure, the motions shall be taken as rejected. Abstentions shall not be counted. In the event of a tie, the motion shall be taken as rejected. (8) If by the end, according to current Brussels time, of the final day to vote less than half of the Members have returned the ballot paper(s) according to Article 7 b (7) of this Constitution, the Governing Board shall, within a term of one (1) week after the term mentioned in the invitation for the first written procedure, again call upon Members to participate in the above procedure pursuant to Article 7 b (1)-(7) of this Constitution. This second written procedure shall validly take place, according to the present Article, irrespective of the number of Members participating. If in the second written procedure no simple majority of the votes cast is reached in favour of the items on the agenda and the motions tabled within the period mentioned in the invitation for the second written procedure, the motions shall be taken as rejected. In the event of a tie, the motions shall be taken as rejected. (9) Further details shall be laid down in the ‘Rules of Procedure’ of the General Assembly.
(7) Regardless of the manner in which the General Assembly is held, Members shall be notified of its resolutions within a reasonable period thereafter, either by email or by letter.
