

CEC Christmas Greetings 2018-2019

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace (Romans 15:13).

Person 1: This Christmas season we rejoice in hope. Together, Christians everywhere hope for a world where love and peace reign through God's grace revealed in Jesus Christ – the divine and human child.

Person 2: In Europe and beyond we pray and hope for a world, where our words and actions help overcome violence, division and discrimination. A world where we work together to bring down walls and build bridges.

Person 3: This Christmas we affirm yet again our call to be witnesses of Jesus Christ – for the sake of those who are marginalised, those who are fleeing conflict, and those suffering from the effects of climate change.

Person 4: This Christmas may we continue to work for peace and reconciliation with the transforming and transfiguring power of faith. May our hearts be filled with hope and love as we celebrate the coming of Jesus Christ – the divine and human child.
