A definition of “GOOD WORK” by the European network – based on the original Finnish wording and revised 2011:

1. Good work produces things of real value
2. Good work respects the dignity of every human being, women and men of all ages, as made in the image of God
3. Good work gives service to your neighbour
4. Good work gives the opportunity to fulfil your vocation and to get training
5. Good work does not make too many demands on creation (minimising pollution and the wasting of natural resources)
6. Good work gives at least a subsistence income and good working conditions
7. Good work brings the possibility of influencing working practices and the rhythm of work
8. Good work enables adequate rest and relaxation, health and safety
9. Good work affirms for each member of the working community the right to participate in decision making
10. Good work balances family life and paid work and gives lifelong security to both women and men

Using the 10 criteria, let’s stop now unhealthy working conditions.
